

Love and Family

And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. Repeat them again and again to your children . Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up.
Deuteronomy 6:6-7

Family, I would like to encourage you to pray this scripture over your children.

Dear Heavenly Father, Let us commit ourselves wholeheartedly to the commands you have given us. Let us be mindful to intentionally engage our child/ren everyday, in teaching them your commands. Help us to recognize opportunities to teach our children more about you, whether we are inside and outside of our home, on daily, and even hourly basis. In your name we pray. Amen.

Pre-school and School Age

-Memory verse: Deuteronomy 6:5 Love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength.

A fun way to memorize scripture is to use hand motions to remember the words. Here is a coloring page to help you: <https://ministry-to-children.com/wp-content/uploads/2011/01/Mark-12-30.jpg>

-Family Fun Challenge. God's love is not meant to be kept. We are loved so that we can show love. I would like to challenge parents and guardians to watch their children closely when they show love and kindness. Then keep track of it by placing a quarter in a jar. At the end of a week or two count up all those acts of love and kindness. Then, pass it on at a local Laundry Mat! Bless someone with some clean clothes!! God keeps no record of our wrongs. He washes us clean with the love of his Son who died on the cross for us. Share that LOVE!
